MEDIA ADVISORY / PHOTO OPPORTUNITY

Boys & Girls Club Members present their artistic Easter hat creations at the Club's annual Easter Hat Parade

WHO: Staff and Club members from Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Denver

WHAT: Across the city, members of Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Denver have been working hard designing and creating their own unique Easter hats. Their creations will be on display at the annual Easter Hat Parade. These 3D, creative masterpieces showcase our members' artistic talent and interests.

HOW: Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Denver staff and members from different Clubs throughout the area, as well as community members, will gather at Jack A. Vickers Boys & Girls Club for this fun annual tradition.

WHEN: Thursday, April 4, 2024
5 p.m. – Easter Hat Parade begins

WHERE: Jack A. Vickers Boys & Girls Club
333 Holly Street, Denver, CO 80207

WHY: Visual and cultural arts are an essential element of Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Denver's programming. The Easter Hat parade is a culmination event that provides Club members the opportunity to present their work of art and creativity to each other and the community.
