MEDIA ADVISORY / PHOTO OPPORTUNITY

Shopneck Boys & Girls Club members, staff, community members, and volunteers prepare the Club's outdoor garden for the growing season.

WHO: Staff, Club members from Shopneck Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Denver, volunteers, and community members

WHAT: Every spring, the community comes together to kickstart the Shopneck garden, ensuring a season of fresh, nutritious produce for Club members. The group will create a thriving hub for plants, vegetables, and herbs that will provide healthy meals and snacks for the Club during summer programming.

HOW: Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Denver staff, members, and volunteers will roll up their sleeves and prepare the Shopneck Boys & Girls Club outdoor garden

WHEN: Monday, May 13, 2024
9 a.m. – 12 p.m.

WHERE: Shopneck Boys & Girls Club
1800 E Longs Peak Street, Brighton, CO 80601

WHY: The Shopneck Garden is a vital part of the organization's Healthy Lifestyles programming, empowering members to make healthy choices and develop lifelong habits through nutrition education and cooking classes.
