Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Denver Hosts Health Resource Fair to Support Community Health Equity

- WHO: Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Denver Staff and over 20 community partners, including Denver Human Services, Servicios de la Raza, Denver Parks & Recreation, WellPower, Public Health Institute at Denver Health, Judi's House, Sticky Fingers, and Ardent Grove.
- WHAT: Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Denver's 2024 Health Resource Fair is an exciting and free opportunity open to the public to connect families with critical community resources. The event aims to provide crucial access and education to families in the Denver area by bridging the gap between available resources and community members in need.
- HOW: Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Denver staff and community partners will connect families with essential resources and services in the community.
- WHEN: Saturday, May 18, 2024
1 – 5 p.m.
- WHERE: J. Churchill Owen Boys & Girls Club
3480 W Kentucky Ave, Denver, CO 80219
- WHY: Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Denver often serve families that live in communities where access to housing, healthy food, and basic resources is inconsistent. With 91% of Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Denver members qualifying for free or reduced lunch, this event focuses on opening doors to critical resources that will promote health equity.
